

POLITALK ROUNDTABLE SERIES

TRUMP AS PRESIDENT: WHAT NOW?

Date: January 26, 2017
Time: 2:30 – 4:30 pm
Venue: B101, Abbotsford campus

The ascension of Donald Trump to the Presidency of the United States of America has raised the hopes and doubts of many at home and abroad.

What are the lessons learned and what does the future hold for the United States and the global community?

Join UFV Faculty members and students in what promises to be a stimulating and insightful interdisciplinary conversation of the “Trump Question”.

UNIVERSITY OF THE FRASER VALLEY

Moderator

Prof. Robin Anderson,
(History Dept)

Panelists

Prof. Edward Akuffo
Prof. Fiona MacDonald
(Political Science Dept)
Prof. Scott Sheffield
(History Dept)
Prof. Michelle Rhodes
(Geography Dept)
Prof. Steven Schroder
(Peace & Conflict Studies)
Prof. Nicola Mooney
Prof. Stephen Piper
(Social, Cultural & Media Studies)

Sponsors for this event include the Political Science department, Peace and Conflict Studies, Geography department, History department, Social, Cultural & Media Studies department, the College of Arts, Research, Engagement & Graduate Studies Office and the Centre for Global Development.

For further details please contact Edward Akuffo at edward.akuffo@ufv.ca or 604-504-7441 ext. 4444