

Planning for a Remote Fall Semester Survey: Graduate Students Results

Location

Where graduate students plan to be in the Fall

68%
in Montreal

18%
in a different time zone

Living Situation Off-Campus

Alone 39%

At Family Home 28%

With Others 27%

Technology

Technologies graduate students have and are comfortable with

97%
have a computer

78%
have fast reliable internet

Level of comfort with online platforms

90% feel comfortable using Zoom for classes

40% feel comfortable using Microsoft Teams

Academics

Top academic support resources graduate students want

Top Resources for Supporting Academic Success

% of Graduates Endorsing

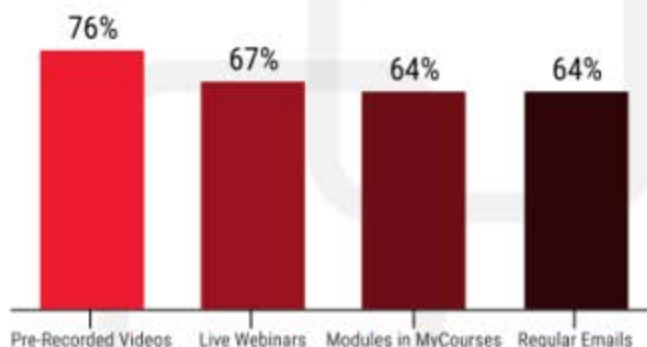

Virtual Office Hours 63%

Academic Skills Development Workshops 51%

Virtual Group Sessions with Faculty and Academic Advisors 49%

Ergonomic Assessment for a Proper Work Area Set-up 30%

Graduate Preferences for Engaging with Remote Learning Resources

Planning for a Remote Fall Semester Survey: Undergraduate Results

Location

Where undergrads
plan to be in the Fall

66%

in Montreal

29%

of new undergrads in residence

18%

in a different time zone

Technology

Technologies undergrads have and are comfortable with

97%

have a computer

72%

have fast
reliable internet

Level of comfort with online platforms

89%

feel comfortable using Zoom for classes

38%

feel comfortable using Microsoft Teams

Academics

Top academic support resources undergrads
want

Top Resources for Supporting Academic Success

% of Undergrads Endorsing

Virtual Office Hours	70%
Virtual Group Sessions with Faculty and Advisors	50%
Academic Skills Development Workshops	42%
One-on-one Tutoring	39%

Undergrad Preferences for Engaging with Remote Learning Resources

