

To,
The Centre for Indo Canadian Studies,
University of the Fraser Valley,

April 13, 2015

Re: My last day of CMNS 412 Practicum with the CICS

This Thursday, April 16, 2015 would be my last day of my practicum with the Centre for Indo Canadian Studies at UFV as a communications student. With that, I would have completed 105 hours of my practicum work with you.

I would like to let you know how grateful I am for having had the opportunity to work with you. I have been given so much affection, trust and responsibilities that I am positively overwhelmed. Your faith in me has allowed me to look at the world in a more positive manner.

- Sharn has allowed me to gain invaluable experience and in effectively communicating with the real world in a professional set up. Her motivation and hard work has allowed me to follow some of her footsteps towards a positive work environment.
- Satwinder's heartfelt words and encouragement has always motivated both Brian and I to recognise ourselves as part of the CICS. Her accepting attitude towards us is very graceful and her hard work and dedication to the CICS has always awestruck me. I look forward to coming in more often and being a close friend of the CICS.
- Kusum Mam's humour and affection has inculcated a feeling of belongingness within me and I am grateful for her generous and kind friendliness towards me.

I am indebted to all of you for giving me such a positive work experience for the past 4 months.

I would like to take this opportunity to invite you to my last day of my CICS Practicum. I will be presenting my practicum to the communications department of UFV in front of the CMNS Faculty and students.

Date: Thursday, April 16, 2015

Time: 1 pm.

Location: UFV, Building D-232

Light refreshments and water will be provided. RSVP at anishbahri@gmail.com
Please feel free to let me know if you have any questions and/or concerns.

Thank you.

Regards,

Anish Bahri
Bachelors of Arts in Leadership, '15
University of the Fraser Valley