

Social Worker full time (1.00 FTE) | AgeCare Harmony Court | Burnaby, BC

Top talent, high standards

With 3,100+ employees across Canada, our leadership team includes some of the best in the industry. You'll work alongside committed and empowering people who will help you rise to your full potential.

A difference you can measure

We're about improving the lives of those around us and making a difference, every day. You'll build lasting relationships with your team members and residents, learn their unique stories, and many will even feel like family.

Appreciation through and through

We don't just employ our people — we celebrate them, we support them, and we recognize them for their amazing commitment all year long. Your wow moments won't go unnoticed as you put your best foot forward.

About the Social Worker role:

What you'll do:

- Support our residents of AgeCare Harmony Court to have meaningful life experiences through care planning and engagement of family and team members
- Perform comprehensive psychosocial assessments (including but not limited to MMSE & GDS) as well as gathering information from previous psychological/mental health assessments
- Work with residents, families and community partners to source and secure necessary funding for services. Provide residents, families and the site with vital resource information
- Be resident-centered in your approach and model our values in all of your interactions with the public, team members, residents and their families
- Lead and coordinate annual care conferences with care team, residents and families

What you'll need:

- A demeanor that is caring, approachable and professional
- A Master's Degree in Social Work from an accredited Canadian school and Registration with the British Columbia College of Social Workers (mandatory)
- 1-2 years Social Work experience in a health care facility/program ideally in gerontology
- Capable of functioning autonomously, independently and interdependently

Perks & Benefits

- ✓ Job variety, no two days will be the same
- ✓ Happy, fulfilled team members working in a culture of caring
- ✓ ...And, oh yeah, competitive wages and benefit plan

Send us your cover letter and resume to resumes@agecare.ca and tell us about yourself. We want to get to know you — what you're passionate about, who inspires you and why you'd be an awesome fit for AgeCare. Don't forget to include your salary expectations!